Qqqqqqqqqq Numb. 6557.

The Daily Courant.

Friday, October 26. 1722.

Venice, October 16.

FOUR Men of War laden with Provisions are sailed from hence for Corfu, and Advices from thence say, the Fortifications of that City and Island are carrying on with great Diligence. The last Convoy that arrived here from Smyrna, consists of nine Ships richly laden, and brings Letters which confirm the Plague's being entirely ceased there; that the Turks were making great Preparations at Constantinople, and speak openly that they are intended to serve against Malta the next Spring.

Hambourg, Oct. 23. Count Rantzau has given Answer to all the Interrogatories that have been put to him, and denies every Article that is deposed against him: He is to be confronted shortly with several Witnesses. The King of Prussia has represented to several States of the Empire, the Incompetency of the late Sentence of the Aulick Council relating to his quitting the County of Tecklembourg, that Affair having been dependent above these 100 Years past on the Chamber of Wetzaleer, and carried in the Year 1703 to the Diet of the Empire.

Hambourg, Oct. 27. 'General Rank has been 'some Days arrived at Berlin, and had a Con'ference with M. d'Ilgen and other Ministers; 'tis 'conjectured, he is come to negociate an Affair of 'Consequence, but the foreign Ministers have not 'yet been able to penetrate the Subject. Advices 'from Moscow of the 18th say, that some Deputies 'are arrived there, in order to hold a Commission 'for regulating Differences between the Superior 'and Inferior Nobility. The Bishop who is ap'prehended there for conspiring against the Czar, 'was carried the 13th Instant and examined be'fore the Judges; he has made a large Confession 'of the Share he had in the late Conspiracy for 'which several Ecclesiasticks have already been 'executed, but withal has shewn himself so great a 'Proficient in wicked Subtilty, that even his own 'Confession, palliated in the Manner he has given 'it, will scarcely lay him under the Punishment 'of Death. Nevertheless there are some Persons 'who are for putting him to the Rack, because 'the rest of the Plotters, upon whom severe Ex'ecution was done the 21st past, charged him 'with being the chief Conspirator, and the Ma'ster-Wheel of their Iniquity. Prince Menzikoff 'and the Minister of Sweden were expected to 'arrive at Moscow the 18th from Petersbourg, but 'the former would not continue there above a 'Day or two, by reason Orders were come for his 'hastening to Astracan. Letters from Sweden 'say, that Count Ducker was returned to Stock'holm from a second Journey he had made to the 'King, and that the Senate being met, it was re'solved to issue Circulars for convening the 'States of the Kingdom in January 1723. Advi'ces from Copenhagen mention the Princess of 'Denmark's being with Child, and that the Court 'is still at Fredericksbourg.

Brussels, Oct. 28. The Inhabitants of this City not having consented to a small Subsidy for Lights, the Magistrates published an Order Yesterday, requiring that all Persons who go in the Streets after it is dusk shall carry some Light with them, under the Penalty of three Florins, or be sent to the Grand Guard. Yesterday at three a-Clock in the Afternoon six Criminals escaped out of the Prison called the Steen-poort, by a Hole they had broke in the Walls, and walked with Irons on their Feet to the Jesuits Convent which stood not far off; above 100 People followed, but none offered to prevent their Escape. Father Valentine received them, and for about a Quarter of an Hour conveyed them somewhere else, because at that Time one of the Magistrates happened to be in the Convent, and would not fail to have sent for the Officers of Justice: Upon this these Delinquents separated themselves, some went to the Convent of the Bare-footed Carmelites, and others to the Capuchin's, re-passing even under their Prison Gate; they are now supposed to be all fled these Parts, none of them being since heard of.

Cambray, Oct. 25. The Plenipotentiaries of the Quadruple Alliance, held a Conference the 23d Instant at the House of the Count de Windisgratz the Emperour's first Plenipotentiary. M. Rangoni the Duke of Modena's Minister arrived here the 19th, and those of Venice and Genoa are expected here To-morrow. This being the Queen of Spain's Birth-Day, his Catholick Majesty's first Plenipotentiary the Count de San Estevan gives on that Occasion a great Entertainment to the foreign Ministers and other Persons of Distinction.

Hague, Oct. 30. Advices from Guelderland say, that the young Prince of Nassau Friesland was declared Stadholder of that Province the 28th Instant. The Holland Deputies are at present at Deventer in Overyssel, endeavouring to engage that Province in the same Sentiments with the Province of Holland; but 'tis doubtful if they are like to succeed better than those who were sent to Guelderland.
